5.6.6 Women's Mentoring Schemes

Mentoring could enable an increase in promotion of women training and professional development in support of Women Empowerment that is capable of driving a positive cultural change in the organisation. The women mentoring schemes comprises identification of career-oriented choices for women associated with or outside the institute and providing the necessary mentorship focusing on career guidance, support and training to the women in their relevant fields. The sustainable development goals emphasise the mentoring of women for

- Expand economic growth and build strong economies
- Promote social development and establish a more stable and just society
- Improve the quality of life for women, men, families and communities
- Propel business operations and goals and enhance business performance which in turn could improve the quality of life globally. The mentoring schemes of the Women Empowerment Cell (WEC), Kalasalingam Academy of Research and Education targets the seven Women Empowerment Principles framed by the United Nations like

1. Establish high-level corporate leadership for gender equality
2. Treat all women and men fairly at work – respect and support human rights and non-discrimination
3. Ensure the health, safety and well-being of all women and men workers
4. Promote education, training and professional development for women
5. Implement enterprise development, supply chain and marketing practices that empower women

6. Promote equality through community initiatives and advocacy
7. Measure and publicly report on progress to achieve gender equality

The members of Women Empowerment Cell carried out various mentoring schemes for promoting and achieving most of the principles framed by the UN.

Some examples of the events with women mentoring schemes includes:

Yaadhumanaval was an inspiring initiative organized by the Women Empowerment Cell of Kalasalingam Academy of Research and Education (KARE), dedicated to empowering young women by fostering confidence, leadership, and self-worth.

Day 1

Session – 1:

The 2-day Training Program on Cocoon crafting was inaugurated by Dr. L. Muthulakshmi, Principal Investigator, Kalasalingam Academy of Research and Education on 20.03.2024. The first day of program started with Dr. L. Muthulakshmi explaining the women beneficiaries about the project “Development of Women Entrepreneurs in Different Sericulture Sectors: Available Technological Strategies to Develop a Cluster-Scale Sustainable Training for Women Empowerment in and around Virudhunagar District (TDUPW/11011/32021-IRD(SC)-DSIR)”. The principal investigator briefed out the opportunities associated with handicraft sector. She emphasized that handicraft making could be a better option for financial empowerment. The sources for procurement of raw materials, the methodology for making crafts along with the marketing strategies for selling it to the consumers was discussed. The doubts of the participants were addressed and encouraged to pursue handicraft making.

Session – 2:

The second session of the program was hands on training on handy craft making using silkworm cocoons. Mrs.G. Sundari, Women Entrepreneur from the project “Development of Women Entrepreneurs in Different Sericulture Sectors: Available Technological Strategies to Develop a Cluster-Scale Sustainable Training for Women Empowerment in and around Virudhunagar District (TDUPW/11011/32021-IRD(SC)-DSIR)” taught the female beneficiary students of G. Venkataswamy Naidu College, Palaya Appaneri, Kovilpati about making handicrafts like earrings, wall hanging, keychains, garlands and bouquets using waste cocoons. The trainer introduced the processes involved in cleaning, dyeing, cutting and shaping the cocoons and explained about the tool requirements needed for it. The students engaged with the trainer and made handicrafts. They also expressed their willingness to carry out the handy-craft making if provided with appropriate facilities for the same.

Session – 3:

The last session of the program was about cultivation of mulberry and maintenance of nursery at Nalli, Sattur Tehsil, an allotted village of the project (TDUPW/11011/32021-IRD(SC)-DSIR). Mrs. K. Maripuspham, Junior Inspector, Sericulture Training Office, Srivilliputtur and Mr. R. Gurusamy, Inspector of Sericulture, Srivilliputtur discussed about cultivation of mulberry, benefits of mulberry, anticipated yield from mulberry cultivation and the strategies and schemes for maintenance of mulberry nursery. They displayed the mulberry plants available in the field and explained the irrigation methods required for proper nourishment of the mulberry crops. The doubts of the participants were addressed by Mrs. K. Maripuspham, Mr. R. Gursamy and Dr. L. Muthulakshmi.

Day 2

Session – 1:

The second day of program was focused on awareness creation among the women beneficiary farmers belonging to the Nalli village within Sattur Tehsil, allocated village under the project “Development of Women Entrepreneurs in Different Sericulture Sectors: Available Technological Strategies to Develop a Cluster-Scale Sustainable Training for Women Empowerment in and around Virudhunagar District (TDUPW/11011/32021-IRD(SC)-DSIR)”. The Mrs. K. Maripuspham, Junior Inspector, Sericulture Training Office, Srivilliputtur briefed out the opportunities associated with the mulberry cultivation emphasizing on the aspects of women empowerment. The doubts of the participants were attended actively by the Junior Inspector.

Session -2:

The second session was handled by Mr. R. Gurusamy, Inspector of Sericulture, Srivilliputtur who continued his topic of discussion from the previous day. He delivered a lecture on the diseases that affect the mulberry plants. He briefed out the causes, effects and the influence of other factors that lead to mulberry infection. He also discussed about the effects of feeding infected mulberry for silkworms, thereby impacting the quality of silk produced. Appropriate measures and techniques involved for better maintenance of mulberry garden was discussed. The doubts of the participants were actively attended by the Inspector of Sericulture.
